Dear Parents / Carers,

Tia Fisher – author visit to Year 10 students on Friday 6th March 2026

I am delighted to be able to tell you that Tia Fisher, author of novels for teenagers, will be visiting school on Friday 6th March 2026 to give a talk to your children. Tia is an award-winning author of the novel Crossing the Line, her first novel, and her second book named Not Going to Plan which is the one she will be discussing with your children. Not Going to Plan was published in September 2025, and has been longlisted to for the Carnegie Medal for Excellence in Writing for Children 2026. I am sure that the students will enjoy hearing her speak.

After the talk, there will be the opportunity to buy Tia's book and have it signed. Tia will bring a quantity of the books into school and they will sell for £8.50 each. Pupils will need to bring the exact amount in cash if they would like to purchase the book.

The talk will form part of our celebration in school of World Book Week and the National Year of Reading 2026.

Yours sincerely,

Sarah Holmes
